

Kalamazoo Book Arts Center General Membership

The Kalamazoo Book Arts Center is a nonprofit arts organization, community workshop, and educational center dedicated to furthering the collaborative arts of book design and printing, fine printmaking, papermaking, bookbinding, and creative writing.

General Memberships:

Families and individuals can support the Kalamazoo Book Arts Center by becoming members.

Families: $65 per year

Individuals: $35 per year

Students and seniors: $20 per year

Members receive these benefits:

- Members will automatically receive KBAC class catalogs and invitations to special events such as poetry readings, lectures, field trips, and our annual Edible Book Festival.
- Members Appreciation Day: One Saturday a year KBAC invites members to come and mingle with the artists and instructors and try out papermaking, printing and other processes and techniques.
- 10% off classes offered by the KBAC
- 10% discount at the new KBAC retail store

Membership support advances our mission to become an educational resource for the community, offering programs for people who enjoy reading and making books, and provide a working studio where visual artists, printers, typographers, papermakers, bookbinders, and writers can collaborate on creative projects.
